

Dolphin Class Charter

We have the right to learn.

We have the responsibility to concentrate, listen to adults and each other, do what we are asked, be respectful, never interrupt or call out, not answer back, be friendly, try our best with our work, challenge ourselves, listen to each other's ideas, to persevere and to understand that it is alright to make mistakes.

We have the right to feel safe.

We have the responsibility to be kind, to not shout at each other, be helpful, keep our hands and feet to ourselves, not damage property, be sensible, never leave the classroom without asking, never snatch and never be rude.

We have the right to hear suitable language.

We have the responsibility to use suitable language and never swear.
