Your task is to design a new bag for Lady Mary. King Henry VIII has just beheaded his wife and she is very keen to be his new bride. They have a meeting arranged and Lady Mary is keen to look her best to impress the King. She is looking for a new designer to help make her a bag. It needs to be professionally put together, in a Tudor style, attractive and able to carry her money and face powder safely.

I am doing Design 1 because it is pretty and attractive. And colorful. And it has more detail. And it will say her name on it. So if she loses it, people will know who it is.

L.I. To use sentences with different forms.

One cold, dark, stormy evening, a little bear called Bob asked his mum nicely, "Can I go to the woods?" "No you can't," said Mum. My bear crossed. "Anyway it's bath time." But he didn't listen because he didn't care because he wanted an adventure. First he found a space helmet on the dining table, next he found a rocket under the stairs. After that he found space boots by the fire and ^{and} found food for the journey. Whoosh! out the chimney! A cold, dark, stormy night.
