Dear Parents

As you are no doubt very aware by now Key Stage 2 SATs start next week on Monday May 8th. The children have worked extremely hard and are now feeling confident and ready to take on this challenge.

It is only natural that the children will be nervous at the beginning of the week and you can support them by reassuring them that they are able to do it and are well prepared. Please also ensure they have enough sleep so that they feel well rested in the mornings.

We will be continuing in the SATs Week tradition by having breakfast together in the Main Hall and there is no charge for this. We find that this allows the children to meet with their peers and to settle before going to the classroom. Children should arrive no earlier than 8.15.am and enter through the Hall doors.

The Year Six Team would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all your support,

Yours sincerely

A Foice

H Butcher
